MIYAGI

- Matsushima Bay - is one of Japan's Three Most Scenic Views, famous for its many pine-covered islands scattered across the calm bay. The combination of blue waters, rocky islets, and graceful pine trees creates a peaceful and poetic coastal landscape.
- Zuiganji Temple - is one of Matsushima's most important Zen temples and a major cultural landmark in the Tohoku region. Closely connected to the famous samurai lord Date Masamune, the temple is known for its elegant wooden architecture, detailed carvings, and peaceful atmosphere.

GINZAN ONSEN

- Ginzan Onsen Street - is one of the most iconic hot spring towns in Japan's Tohoku region. Traditional wooden ryokan inns line both sides of the Ginzan River, creating a nostalgic streetscape with a strong Taisho-era atmosphere. Although the town is small, its stone-paved lanes, wooden buildings, bridges, flowing river, and misty mountain setting create a peaceful and romantic hot spring village scene. In the evening, warm lights illuminate the town, making it feel like a scene from old Japan.

FUKUSHIMA

- Tsuruga Castle - is the most iconic landmark of Aizuwakamatsu and one of Tohoku's famous Japanese castles. Known for its distinctive red-tiled roof and elegant appearance, the castle is closely connected to the history of the Aizu domain and the late Edo period.
- Ouchi-juku - is a well-preserved Edo-period post town that once served travelers between Aizu and Nikko. The village is lined with traditional thatched-roof houses, creating a strong old-Japan countryside atmosphere.

NIKKO

- Nikko Toshogu Shrine - is one of Japan's most ornate and important shrines, dedicated to Tokugawa Ieyasu, the founder of the Tokugawa Shogunate. As part of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Nikko, the shrine is famous for its rich colors, golden details, and intricate carvings, including the famous "Three Wise Monkeys" and "Sleeping Cat." It is a must-visit cultural landmark in the Kanto region.
- Kegon Waterfall - is one of Japan's Three Great Waterfalls, dropping dramatically from cliffs near Lake Chuzenji. The surrounding scenery changes beautifully with the seasons: fresh greenery in spring and summer, colorful autumn leaves, and icy winter views. It is one of Nikko's most iconic natural attractions and pairs well with visits to Toshogu Shrine and Lake Chuzenji.

TOKYO

- Kawagoe Ichibangai Street - is the most iconic historic street in Kawagoe, known for its Edo-period warehouse-style buildings. Because of this atmosphere, Kawagoe is often called "Little Edo." The street is lined with traditional shops, snack stores, souvenir shops, and old merchant buildings, offering visitors a nostalgic glimpse of Japan's past near Tokyo.
- Shibuya Scramble Crossing - is one of Tokyo's most iconic urban scenes and one of the world's busiest pedestrian crossings. When the lights turn green, crowds move from all directions at once, creating a powerful image of modern Tokyo. Surrounded by shopping malls, giant screens, cafés, and youth fashion areas, it is a must-visit spot to feel the energy and rhythm of the city.
